Attacks on places of worship in Fiji

951. SHRI KRISHAN LAL SHARMA:
SHRI VISHWASRAO RAMRAO PATIL:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there have been in the recent past cases of attack on places of worship of people of Indian origin in Fiji;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the steps contemplated by Government to safeguard the lives and properties of Indians there?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) and (b) Government have been reports in the Press about cases of attacks on places of worship of people of Indian origin in Fiji.

According to these reports, two Hindu temples were firebombed and damaged in Suva in mid-September, 1991. The Chief Priest at the Sangam Hindu Temple at Nadi in Fiji was assaulted for alleged idol worship. On October 12, 1991, another Hindu temple at Tamavus about 3 kms. from Suva, is reported to have been firebombed. States and religious texts, such as the Ramayana, are reported to have been damaged/burnt in the attack.

(c) Government of India are concerned about the racial discrimination being practised against the people of Indian origin in Fiji and the violation of Human Rights of citizens of Fiji by the illegal Government. India has been vigorously pursuing the matter of racial discrimination and Human Rights violations in Fiji at concerned UN organisations. Human Rights bodies, Commonwealth Heads of Government meetings as well as in bilateral meetings with concerned counrties such as Australia, New Zealand, France, U.K., USA and Mauritius. India will continue to oppose the re-entry of Fiji into the Commonwealth.

Foreign Support to ULFA Militants

952. SHRI G. G. SWELL:
DR. NAGEN SAIKIA:
SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have secured evidence that ULFA militants in Assam have links with and support from neighbouring countries like Bangla desh, Murma, and China;

(b) whether it is also a fact that ULFA has established bases in these countries; and

(c) if so, what is Government's reaction there to by way of taking up the matter at bilateral, multilateral and diplomatic levels, with a view to impressing upon these countries to refrain from aiding or abetting the militants?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) and (b) Government have reports that some ULFA militants in Assam are getting assistance from across the border in Bangladesh and Myanmar. Reports refer to the presence of some bases also.

There is no confirmed evidence that ULFA militants have links with China or have established bases in that country.

(c) Government have taken up the matter with the Governments of Bangladesh and Myanmar bilaterally. The Government of Bangladesh have denied reports referred to above. However, matter is under discussion with them as well as with the Government of Myanmar.

The Chinese Government have denied that they are extending assistance to separatist movements in Assam. They have informed Government that China has never interferred in the internal affairs of other countries and world never do so in the future. Government have taken note of the Chinese denial.
